Y.M.C.A. CAMPAIGN REPORT LUNCHEONS

The progress of the Y's 1965 campaign will be reported at noon hour meetings to be held on March 30th, April 2, 6, and 9. The closing dinner is to be held on Monday April 12th.

Speakers at the luncheons are:

March 30th: Magnus Flynn, Dean of Students of Sir George Williams University will report on the intensive student leader training program conducted in co-operation with specialized Y staff. This project is the first of its kind at a Canadian University.

April 2nd: Mac Singleton, Executive Secretary of the NDG-Y will speak on "First Aid to Failing Students". Outstanding succes has been achieved with this novel program at N.D.G.

April 6th: Maurice Strong, President of the Power Corporation of Canada will be guest speaker. Mr. Strong is Chairman of the National Y.M.C.A. World Service Committee.

April 9th: Ross Bannerman, Executive Secretary of the Lakeshore Y will speak on the Pincourt Teens Project. The Y in co-operation with city officials and local residents has established a special Teen project in a house and has developed a youth committee to manage the program.

All meetings are at 12:30 p.m. in the Downtown Y.M.C.A. A press table is provided.
